

Matteo Villani

Innovative and deadline-driven Computer engineer with strong problem-solving skills, commitment to excellence and growing knowledge in various fields, mostly in Computer Vision, Robotics and AI. I enjoy working collaboratively but can also manage projects independently. I am ready to contribute my passion and skills to help drive the innovation as a global technology leader.

Contact

---

Email

LinkedIn

Personal Portfolio

Hobbies

---

- Anime
- Formula 1
- Chess
- Waterpolo
- Football

Skills

---

- Web developer
- Software developer
- Ability to work in a team
- Highly responsible and reliable
- Fast learner
- Problem-solving
- Highly motivated

Experience

---

Bachelor Internships – Jun 2022, sep 2022

RiAtlas, Fisciano (SA)

RiAtlas is an innovative start-up authorized spin-off of the university of Salerno, which operates in the digital health sector to support precision medicine.

- Lead in the design, development and implementation of a medical application that allows easy visualization for the specialist of the data collected and is aimed at improving the supervision of the therapeutic progress of the patient.
- Solve a Machine Learning problem regarding the field of Human Activity Recognition.
- Worked in a team of members for a deadline-based project.
- Learned the fundamentals Of Machine Learning to develop a Long-short-term memory model based software.

Education

---

- Computer Engineering, university of Salerno, Fisciano (SA), sep 2019 — sep 2022.
- Master in Artificial Intelligence & Robotics, Padova University of Padua, Padova (PD), oct 2022 – dec 2024.